New England Bible College exists to partner with local churches in preparing students for service to God through Great Commission ministry. NEBC is a state accredited, degree granting, higher education institution. Established in 1959 under CSI as Glen Cove Bible School, the college gained state accreditation in 1973 and was renamed Glen Cove Bible College. When CSI became insolvent in 1979, the school was reestablished in Portland, ME, as New England Baptist Bible College. Since 1959, the college has trained over 1000 Evangelical Christians for various forms of Christian ministry. Now located in South Portland, ME, NEBC draws a commuter student body from central and southern Maine, New Hampshire, and other regions within New England. NEBC, under the direction of President Richard Francis and Dean Peter Hasbrouck, employs 2 full time faculty, 12 adjunct faculty, a small administrative staff, and trains about 50 students each semester. NEBC has granted hundreds of Baccalaureate degrees, Associates degrees, and dozens of Bible Certificates.
