

NEBC Notes

Fall 2010

Re-Imagining the Word Seminar
October 23
8:30-12:00
First Baptist South Portland

Seminar Promo Materials at NEBC.EDU:

- ◆ Video Clip
- ◆ Brochure
- ◆ Registration
- ◆ PowerPoint Slide
- ◆ Web Links

NEBC will host a seminar featuring Hunter Barnes, a Christian pastor and actor who has memorized the Gospel of Mark and presents it in a powerful way (MarkHisWord.org). Workshops on creatively proclaiming Scripture to youth and children will be led by Atmosphere (AtmosphereChurch.com) and Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEFonline.com). Registration is only $10. FMI: Visit nbc.edu

“Hunter’s presentation of the Gospel of Mark is moving and edifying. It’s not too much to say that the anointing of God is on this ministry. Hunter has performed for and instructed my seminary students as an adjunct professor, here at Gordon Conwell”

Dr. Jeff Arthurs is Professor of Preaching and Communication at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary and author of the book “Preaching with Variety”.

Prayer Corner:

- ⇒ Praise! Our annual banquet with the President of the Association of Biblical Higher Education as a guest speaker was a great success.
- ⇒ Praise! NEBC is now a member of the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability.

New England Bible College is a state accredited, degree granting, higher education institution. Established in 1959 under CSI as Glen Cove Bible School, the college gained state accreditation in 1973 and was renamed Glen Cove Bible College.

When CSI became insolvent in 1979, the school was reestablished in Portland, ME, as New England Baptist Bible College. Since 1959, the college has trained over 1000 Evangelical Christians for various forms of Christian ministry. Now located in South Portland, ME, NEBC draws a commuter student body from central and southern Maine, New Hampshire, and other regions within New England. NEBC, under the direction of President Richard Francis and Dean Peter Hasbrouck, employs 2 full time faculty, 12 adjunct faculty, a small administrative staff, and trains about 50 students each semester. NEBC has granted hundreds of Baccalaureate degrees, Associates degrees, and dozens of Bible Certificates. New England Bible College exists to partner with local churches in preparing students for service to God through Great Commission ministry.
