COMMUNITY COVENANT

We welcome you as a new student interested in enrolling in one or more of our course offerings. The New England Bible College/Grace Evangelical Seminary community lives according to a shared Statement of Faith, a common Mission and Purpose, and a Community Standard of Behavior (see website) responsible to Christ and His teachings. While we welcome honest conversations and recognize that well-intentioned people may disagree on matters of significance, we nevertheless require our students to be respectful of our community's Christian convictions and commitments. If you affirm that you are able to demonstrate such respect in your words and behaviors, please indicate by signing below:

Signature Date

"I affirm that by my signature that all information contained in the application is my work, factually true and honestly presented."

Signature Date

Please be aware that courses taken for credit as a non-degree student may be transferred into a certificate or degree program, should your educational goal lead you in that direction. But students will be required to resubmit a full application for the program of their choice—and be accepted by New England Bible College/Grace Evangelical Seminary—before such a transfer is made.

Please return completed application with $25 application fee to NEBC/Grace Evangelical Seminary.
